Greengate Hospital and Open-Air School.

ANNUAL REPORT.

Year ending December 31st, 1936.

The Greengate Hospital and Open-Air School is established in one of the poorer districts of the City of Salford. The Hospital, which is in a narrow street (Garden Lane), comprises an Out-Patient Department for adults and children, and an In-Patient Department with forty beds for children suffering from rickets. A few cases of mal-nutrition and general debility which are likely to benefit from open-air treatment are also received. The School, which adjoins the Hospital, consists of a shed with the open side facing south, and a large playground, part of which is asphalted and part used for children's gardens. The ages of the children range from about two to nine years. They attend the Open-Air School daily, and in order that they shall not lose touch with their family, are sent home each week-end. This arrangement also has the great advantage of demonstrating the benefits of open-air life and good hygiene to the neighbourhood. One of the principal aims of the Hospital from its foundation has been to set an example of healthy life and to show the value of the open air, thus assisting the Public Health Service of the City of Salford.

During 1936 the In-Patient Department has worked to its fullest capacity. The Extension, by which it has been possible to provide for forty In-Patients instead of the previous thirty, was formally opened on June 30th, by Mr. Robert McDougall, J.P., and the extra ten children were admitted in September. In addition to these ten, three new patients have been admitted during the year from the waiting list in place of three discharged. The children live in the open air, have a generous diet, and are given medical treatment, and, in suitable cases, massage. Their progress in weight, height, and development is carefully watched and charted, and compared with the normal. It is found that not only do bony deformities and the stigmata of rickets disappear, but, before leaving, the children approximate to and sometimes even surpass the normal weight and height for their age.

The work of the School has continued summer and winter under strict open-air conditions, which are both health-giving and invigorating. The happiness, confidence, and initiative of the children are proof of their ready response to treatment. The curriculum, besides aiming at helping them, on leaving, to take their places in normal primary schools with children of their own age, is carefully planned to give them the best possible physical development. General and remedial exercises, rhythmic movement, games, and dancing, while strengthening weak muscles and assisting co-ordination of movement, play a prominent part in the correction of curvatures and postural defects.

The Out-Patient Department has carried on during the year with four Out-Patient sessions a week. Here general medical cases, both adults and children, are treated, and the Department fills a real need in the treatment of the sick poor, catering especially for the non-insured class of patient. There have been 7,824 attendances during the past year, and 873 new patients. The Massage Department has continued to be open three times a week and 989 treatments have been given, including both In-patients and Out-Patients, and much good work has been done.

Since the last report was issued, Mrs. J. Sutcliffe has joined the General Committee. The Committee welcome this further help from her, as she has long served on the House Committee of the Hospital.

Mr. P. L. D. Frankenburg has also been elected to the General Committee.

Mr. P. Stowell, who has been associated with the Hospital for very many years, has felt compelled, owing to removal from Manchester, to resign his connection with the Hospital. The Committee are grateful for all his help and for his interest.

At the end of July, through the kindness of the Committee of Management of the Salford Poor Children's Holiday Camp, a very happy fortnight was spent at Prestatyn. It was very much enjoyed and the children profited greatly by it.

A delightful Christmas Party was held in Christmas week, and attended by Father Christmas in person. During the afternoon, the Wireless Set installed in four rooms at the Hospital through the kindness of the News-Chronicle Wireless Fund in conjunction with the Radio Manufacturers' Association, was formally handed over.

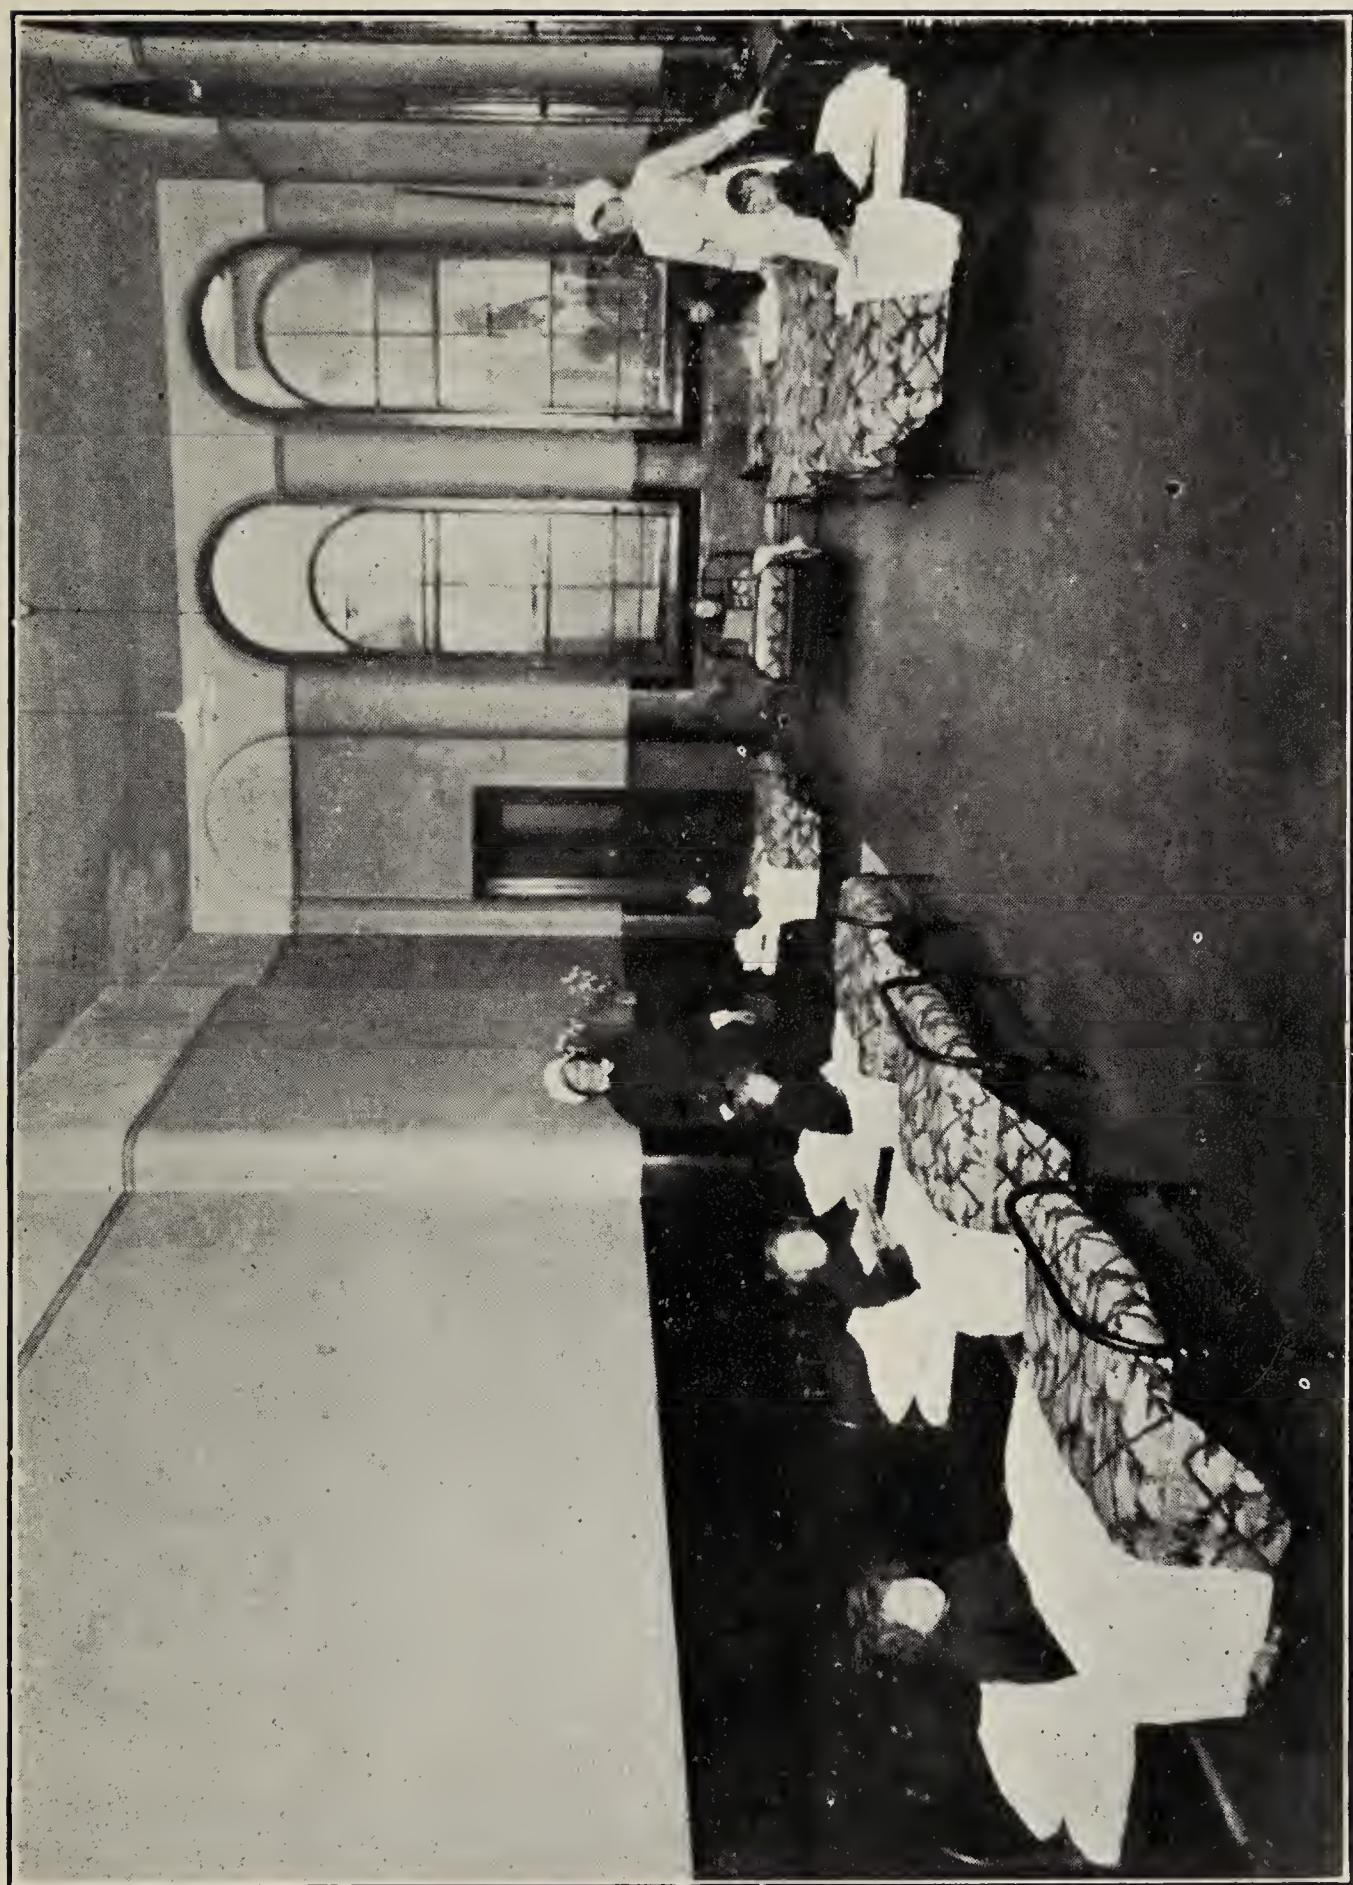

An "afternoon" for parents, and members of the Blackfriars' Fellowship was also held in December, when the children gave their Christmas Party entertainment, which was very much enjoyed by their audience.

A new and larger shelter has been erected in front of the Hospital (for the use of the children in wet weather), owing to the kindness of Mrs. Cohen, who contributed £60 towards the cost of this, in memory of her brother, the late Chairman.

During the year, Mrs. Weaver kindly arranged an American Tea, part of the proceeds of which went towards the erection of a Fire Escape. Mrs. Pilkington also kindly gave a Bridge Evening for the same purpose, and £20 5s. was placed to a reserve for the Fire Escape erection, as a result of these two efforts.

Several interested friends have kindly undertaken to knit articles of clothing for the children, and for this purpose gifts of wool (red, white, or navy blue) would be welcomed.

The Committee wish to record their gratitude to:—
The Honorary Auditors and Honorary Solicitor for their help, and the Honorary Medical Staffs and the Hospital and School Staffs for efficient and loyal service; The Firm and Employees of the Greengate and Irwell Rubber Company, and the Staff of the Education Committee of the Corporation for much practical help; Also to the many friends who have organised efforts and whose names appear in the various lists of donations and subscriptions; and to all other friends of the Hospital who have contributed to the happiness of the children and staff during the year.
